

Per Sigurd Våge

International Advisor/ Director | Kriminalomsorgsdirektoratet, Norway

Per Sigurd Våge is a director in the Correctional service of Norway. Since graduating from law-studies in 1984, he has been a professional practitioner in the governmental field of justice, in various roles as a prosecutor, judge, lawyer in the police, prison governor and regional director in the Correctional service. From 2019-2021, he was stationed in the bilateral mission in Kyiv, Ukraine as an international expert in Rule of Law, enhancing the Ukrainian probation service.

In all leading roles of management, development, rule of law and security he has been innovative and motivated to enhance the organization towards evidence-based methods and best practice. His priority and perspective has been strong on each individual person serving their sentences, in a measure of stability to the social contract of each government in office.

Per Sigurd is a person with an optimistic and curious mindset in his professional and private life.